

PRESS FACT SHEET

Software you own outright.

Small, single-file apps that run in your browser, keep your data on your machine, and never ask for a subscription.

Offline.Ltd makes "Swiss Knives" — single-file offline apps shaped to one person's life through a short guided intake. Each runs in the browser with no account, no cloud, and no tracking; your data lives inside the file, on your machine. You pay once. There is no subscription, ever. Unusually, a knife holds the whole of a life — the hobbies, home and relationships, not only the productive part.

QUOTABLE

"A life is bigger than its productive third. A knife should fit the whole thing."
